

My Heroes Booklet

Completing your Heroes booklet:

- Think about people who have inspired you or who have achieved something that you admire. Think about people who have failed and never given up. Think about people who have been innovators or have discovered completely new ways of doing things. Think about people you would like to be like.
- Your heroes don't have to be famous people – they can be friends, relatives, characters from stories or even animals!
- Fill out each of the hero pages as shown below and, on the back cover of your booklet, draw or paste a team picture of your heroes so that you can thank them for their work!

Don't worry – 'heroes' is considered a gender neutral term – your heroes can be male or female!

Name: My dad	Insert the hero's name here
 	Draw or paste a picture of your hero here and add something that they might say
Achievements: Having 3 children, running 2 marathons, cooking the world's best lasagna, telling the best stories.	List your hero's notable achievements here
What I admire: My dad is my hero because he always finds a positive way to look at things, however bad they seem. He has taught me that if you always try to think positively then, after a while, you can do it on your own without trying.	What do you most admire about this hero and why?
