

Salvador Dalí

Salvador Dalí was a Surrealist artist who used dreams as a basis for many of his paintings. Surrealist means 'beyond reality' meaning it is art which is unreal often showing dreams.

Draw part of a scene from a dream you might have had or a scene of something completely unreal. Then use the scene to create a painting in the style of Salvador Dalí.

