

Dear Neighbours

2 Dear neighbours,

14 I am writing this letter to ask you to rename your dog.

24 Since you moved in next door, I have been hearing

34 my name being called repeatedly. Each time, I run to
43 answer you before realising that you're only calling for
45 your dog.

55 Last week, I was cooking beans when I heard you
63 shouting. Half-cooked beans went flying as I rushed
73 to answer your call. When I arrived outside with bean
84 juice all over my front, I realised that you were just
88 calling for the dog.

99 As I can't easily change my name, I suggest that you
102 rename your dog.

104 Yours faithfully,

105 Fido

Quick Questions

1. What happened to Fido last week?

2. How do you think the person who wrote this letter is feeling?

3. Explain why Fido has chosen to write a letter.

4. I am writing this letter to ask you to rename your dog.

Why do you think that the author chosen to start the letter in this way?

Dear Neighbours

2 Dear neighbours,

14 I am writing this letter to ask you to rename your dog.

24 Since you moved in next door, I have been hearing

34 my name being called repeatedly. Each time, I run to

43 answer you before realising that you're only calling for

45 your dog.

55 Last week, I was cooking beans when I heard you

63 shouting. Half-cooked beans went flying as I rushed

73 to answer your call. When I arrived outside with bean

84 juice all over my front, I realised that you were just

88 calling for the dog.

99 As I can't easily change my name, I suggest that you

102 rename your dog.

104 Yours faithfully,

105 Fido

Answers

1. What happened to Fido last week?

Last week, Fido poured bean juice all down their front when they heard the neighbours calling their name.

2. How do you think the person who wrote this letter is feeling?

Accept any sensible answer, such as: I think that Fido is feeling fed up because they keep thinking that their neighbour is calling them but they're not.

3. Explain why Fido has chosen to write a letter.

Pupils' own responses, such as: Fido has chosen to write a letter because they want their neighbours to change their dog's name. Fido wants to stop rushing outside whenever they hear their name being called.

4. I am writing this letter to ask you to rename your dog.

Why do you think that the author chosen to start the letter in this way?

Pupils' own responses, such as: I think that the author has chosen to start the letter like this so that it makes it really clear what the letter is about.